PROCUREMENT & SUPPLY CHAIN EVOLUTION FOR BELT & ROAD INITIATIVE

November 3, 2018 (Saturday)
09:00 to 16:30

The Sheraton Hong Kong Hotel
Ballroom, 3rd Floor
20 Nathan Road, Tsimshatsui, Kowloon

The IPSHK International Conference on Procurement & Supply Chain Evolution for Belt & Road Initiative cum 45th Anniversary Event is to provide practitioners the opportunities to share and explore the latest developments on how "One Belt, One Road" transform into a global epicenter for purchasing, supply chain and logistics by integrating an array of vibrant industrial zones with a vast, interconnected network of rail, highway and air transportation options.

In the old days, traders in Hong Kong sourced from the Mainland China and other parts of Asia for exporting to the US and European markets. Nowadays, the combined economies along the road represent a huge population and a significant market not only for Hong Kong but also for other Asian countries in the region in coming years. We are sourcing from everywhere and bring the goods back to the Region, the global value chain has been shifted.
